Flavored syrups

Welcome to the tea party

A cup of tea isn't what it used to be. Customers are looking for a fresh drink experience and that's exactly what a Sweetbird iced tea or chai is.

It's dead easy to make teas from the syrups – you just add water, pour over ice and you've got a beautifully refreshing drink. Our original iced tea is a light brew of black tea, either on its own or combined with the tangy flavor of raspberry or peach, whereas chai is a rich mix of tea and cardamom, cinnamon, cloves and ginger, served milky, sweet and soothing, hot or cold.

So there's something to hit the spot whatever the weather. A nice cuppa? With Sweetbird it's always a bit special.
